

06 February 2013 Santa Cruz Islands Tsunami

Source: Pacific Tsunami Warning Center, NOAA NWS

The 6 February 2013 magnitude 8.0 Mw Santa Cruz Islands, Solomon Islands earthquake (10.738 S, 165.138 E, depth 29 km) generated a tsunami that was observed all over the Pacific region and caused deaths and damage locally. The following plots demonstrate the tsunami recorded at tsunameter/DARTs by Pacific Tsunami Warning Center, NOAA NWS.

Station 55012 - Coral Sea 1 - 1285km ENE of Townsville

15.799 S 158.400 E (15°47'56" S 158°24'1" E)

Station 52406 - NORTHEAST SOLOMON - 370NM NE of the Guadalcanal

45.855 N 5.293 S 165.002 E (5°17'36" S 165°0'6" E)

